2. If the customer has accepted the offer by giving an assignment to Wijnands Schilderwerken, Wijnands Schilderwerken will confirm the customer's assignment in writing via e-mail. Each quotation is valid for a maximum of one month (unless explicitly agreed otherwise), thereafter Wijnands Schilderwerken is no longer bound by that quotation.
3. Wijnands Schilderwerken is not bound by an offer if the customer could reasonably have been expected to have understood, or should have understood, that the offer contained an obvious mistake or error. The customer cannot derive any rights from such mistake or error.
4. An offer is only valid if it is made in writing by Wijnands Schilderwerken to the customer. The offer will expire if the product or service to which the quotation relates becomes unavailable in the meantime.
5. All offers made by Wijnands Schilderwerken are without obligation unless explicitly stated otherwise in writing. If the offer is limited or valid under specific conditions, this will be explicitly stated in the offer.
6. Wijnands Schilderwerken is only bound by an offer if the acceptance thereof is confirmed in writing by the customer within 30 days. Nevertheless, Wijnands Schilderwerken has the right to refuse to enter into a contract with a potential customer when they have a valid reason.
7. The offer contains a complete and accurate description of the services offered. The description will be sufficiently detailed to allow the customer to make a good assessment of the offer. Wijnands Schilderwerken cannot be bound by obvious mistakes or errors in the offer. Any images and specific data contained in the offer are only indicative and cannot constitute grounds for compensation or termination of the contract.
8. Delivery times shown in the Wijnands Schilderwerken offer are indicative and, unless explicitly agreed otherwise, do not give the customer any right to compensation or termination if they are exceeded.
9. A composite quotation does not oblige Wijnands Schilderwerken to deliver part of the items included in the offer or quotation at a corresponding proportion of the stated price.
10. Where the customer is a company, the right of cancellation is excluded.

Article 4 – Duration of the contract

1. The contract is for the duration stated in the quotation, unless otherwise agreed.
2. The customer is entitled to cancel the contract at any time in whole or in part, in which case the customer must reimburse the costs actually incurred by Wijnands Schilderwerken up to that point on the basis of the work performed.
3. Wijnands Schilderwerken can terminate the agreement on the basis of an attributable non-performance of the contract if the customer has been given written notice of non-performance, and has been given a reasonable period of time to perform his obligations, and fails to perform them in a proper manner. This includes the customer's obligations as regards payment and cooperation.

4. Both the customer and Wijnands Schilderwerken can terminate the agreement in whole or in part in writing, without further notice of default, and with immediate effect in the event that one of the parties is in suspension of payment, has filed for bankruptcy or the company in question is terminated by liquidation, other than for the purposes of merging or reconstruction of the company. If a situation as mentioned above occurs, Wijnands Schilderwerken is never obliged to refund monies already received and/ or pay compensation. Wijnands Schilderwerken is also entitled to immediately take back goods that have not yet been paid for, and thus retains the right to claim additional compensation from the customer.
5. If Wijnands Schilderwerken should suffer death after the conclusion of the contract or become permanently unfit for work, either party may terminate the contract, insofar as, due to the nature of the contract, they can derive any reasonable interest from termination in the event of death or permanent incapacity for work. Where applicable, the customer will owe a fee that can be reasonably determined, with due regard for all the circumstances, for the work already performed and costs incurred, payable to the heirs or successors in title to Wijnands Schilderwerken.

Article 5 – Contract variations and modifications

1. If, during the execution of the contract, it appears that the contract needs to be adjusted and/ or extended, or further work is required at the customer's request in order to achieve the result the customer wants, the customer is obliged to pay for this extra work according to the agreed rate. Wijnands Schilderwerken is not obliged to comply with this request, and may require the customer to conclude an additional contract for this extra work.
2. If a fixed price has been agreed for the work, Wijnands Schilderwerken will inform the customer about the additional costs or financial consequences of the additional work required.
3. If and insofar as a fixed price has been agreed for the performance of certain work, and the performance of that work leads to additional work that cannot reasonably be considered to be included in the fixed price, Wijnands Schilderwerken is entitled to charge these costs to the customer. The customer is also bound by any price increase as a result of incorrect data provided by the customer which would have been an important factor in determining the price, unless Wijnands Schilderwerken should have discovered the data error before determining the price. Such price adjustments will be discussed with the customer prior to the work, unless this is not reasonably possible.
4. Price changes as a result of contract changes or to comply with laws and regulations must be paid for by the customer.

Article 6 – Prices and payment

1. All prices are in principle exclusive of VAT and other tax levies. But for customers, prices are shown including VAT. When Wijnands Schilderwerken (in part) carries out an assignment at the customer's location, additional costs (travel, accommodation and parking) may also be charged. A surcharge as agreed in the quotation and/ or contract may apply in respect of any urgent work that (must) be carried out at the customer's request or outside office hours.
2. The customer cannot derive any rights or expectations from a previously issued estimate, unless the parties have explicitly agreed otherwise. If the stated price is a guide price, that guide price will not be exceeded by more than 10%, unless Wijnands Schilderwerken has warned the customer as soon as possible about the likelihood there will be an additional overspend, and has given the customer the opportunity to limit, simplify or otherwise continue the work. As far as is reasonable, Wijnands Schilderwerken will cooperate with any such restriction or simplification. This also applies if the price depends on the estimated duration of the work.
3. Where this has been agreed, the customer is obliged to pay the agreed down payment within the specified period before Wijnands Schilderwerken can start the execution of the contract.
4. Where the customer is obliged to make regular payments, Wijnands Schilderwerken is entitled to adjust applicable prices and rates in accordance with the conditions of the contract, but (only) in writing and after observing a period of at least three months from the conclusion of the contract in which prices will not rise.
5. The customer is obliged to pay for work carried out by Wijnands Schilderwerken as stated in the contract. The agreed amount must be paid within 14 days from the date of the invoice. This is a strict deadline.
6. The customer must pay these costs as a lump sum without deferment, deduction and/ or offsetting into the Wijnands Schilderwerken account using the number and information that has been made known to him unless explicitly agreed otherwise. Only in special circumstances, and after receiving explicit written permission from Wijnands Schilderwerken, can the customer agree a further period in which the amount due must be paid.

Article 7 – Debt collection policy

1. If the customer does not meet his/ her payment obligations and has not complied with these obligations within a period of 14 days, the customer is in default, and if the customer has acted in the exercise of a business or profession, the account will be considered in default without any further notice being required.
2. From the date that the customer is in default, Wijnands Schilderwerken will, without further notice of default, claim statutory (commercial) interest from the first day of default until complete payment and reimbursement of the extrajudicial costs is received in accordance with Article 6:96 of the Civil Code, to be charged according to a scale derived from the decision on compensation for extrajudicial collection costs of 1 July 2012. Customers will first receive a written reminder that they are in default, after which they will receive a reminder which informs them of the consequences of the default which has occurred.
3. If Wijnands Schilderwerken has incurred further or higher costs which are reasonably necessary, these costs are eligible for reimbursement. The customer will also be liable for any judicial and execution costs incurred.

Article 8 – Performance of work

1. Wijnands Schilderwerken will endeavour to execute the contract with the greatest possible care as would be expected of a good contractor. All work is performed with an obligation to provide best efforts unless a specified result has been explicitly described in detail, and in writing.
2. When performing the work, Wijnands Schilderwerken is not obliged or bound to follow the customer's instructions if this changes the content or scope of the agreed work. If the instructions result in additional work for Wijnands Schilderwerken, the customer is accordingly obliged to pay for the additional costs.

3. Whether they are required or not, Wijnands Schilderwerken does not request permits or other documents from a government or other authorities. The customer is responsible for the timely acquisition of the permits and/ or approvals required. Any damage or delay as a result of the absence of these permits or permissions shall be at the customer's expense and risk. The customer explicitly indemnifies Wijnands Schilderwerken against all (consequential) damage resulting from the absence of permits and permissions. Wijnands Schilderwerken will charge the (consequential) damage to the customer and the customer is obliged to compensate Wijnands Schilderwerken for such damage.

4. Wijnands Schilderwerken is entitled to engage third parties for the execution of the work at its own discretion. If any third party performs work for which some terms and conditions of this third party apply, the customer has the right to invoke the conditions which are most favourable to him, unless other agreements have been explicitly concluded with Wijnands Schilderwerken.

5. Wijnands Schilderwerken undertakes to inform the customer of demonstrable defects in the method(s), instructions, orders or constructions prescribed by or on behalf of the customer, and demonstrable defects in building materials and aids made available or prescribed by the customer, if and insofar as Wijnands Schilderwerken knew about them, or should have known about them.

In the absence of this, Wijnands Schilderwerken is entitled to suspend its work until this stipulation is met, without being obliged to make compensation for any damage caused by the delay;

c. the third parties engaged by the customer perform their work and/ or deliveries in such a way that Wijnands Schilderwerken is not delayed or impeded in the execution of the contract or work;

Article 8A – Execution of façade and stucco work

1. Façade work has a drying time of 7 calendar days from the time of delivery to the customer unless expressly agreed otherwise. During these 7 days, the customer must refrain from any action which may harm this drying process. The customer must take into account that during the drying time the stucco is not fully cured and is more susceptible to any kind of damage.

2. Wijnands Schilderwerken is not obliged to repair work and/ or compensate for any damage nor refund any monies already paid if and insofar as this damage to the stucco is due to the carelessness, negligence, or inappropriate actions by the customer during the drying time.

3. The materials used for the façade work are materials which subsequently harden. Cracks may form/ arise in the stucco over time. This can occur because of the subsurface, or through external causes such as earth tremors. All damage resulting from this shall be entirely at the customer's expense and risk.

Article 8B – Execution of painting work

1. Paintwork has a certain drying time which depends on the type of paint that has been used. Wijnands Schilderwerken is obliged to inform the customer of the specific drying time of each completed work before the moment of delivery. During this drying time, the customer must refrain from any action which may harm this drying process. The customer must take into account that during the drying time the paintwork is not fully cured and the colour may vary from the final result. During this drying time, paintwork can be more susceptible to any kind of damage.

3. The outcome of the paintwork in the long term depends on several factors, such as the actions of light, weather and the quality of the substrate. If cracks appear in the paintwork due to circumstances which are not the fault of Wijnands Schilderwerken, or by objective criteria should not be borne by Wijnands Schilderwerken, for example earth tremors, all damage so caused shall be entirely at the customer's expense and risk.

4. If defects have occurred in the paintwork after the drying time indicated by Wijnands Schilderwerken, the customer must inform Wijnands Schilderwerken within 2 days at the latest. Wijnands Schilderwerken is obliged to repair any defects in the work that arise after the aforementioned period free of charge, unless the defects are not related to the work, or if these are to be borne by the customer on the basis of the provisions referred to in paragraphs 1 and 3 of this article.

All agreed (delivery) delivery times are never strict deadlines. The customer must give Wijnands Schilderwerken written notice of default and grant it a reasonable period to still complete the delivery.

8. If Wijnands Schilderwerken has indicated that the work is ready to be delivered and the customer has not approved the work within a reasonable period of no later than 14 days, and accepts it with or without reservation, or refuses to indicate the defects, the customer is deemed to have tacitly accepted the work. Minor defects which can be repaired within the maintenance period are not a reason for refusing the delivered goods if this does not prevent commissioning. After acceptance, the work is considered to be complete.

9. After completion, the work becomes the risk and responsibility of the customer. The customer therefore remains liable for the price regardless of the loss or deterioration of the work due to any cause which cannot be attributed to Wijnands Schilderwerken.

- At the conclusion of the contract, the customer has been requested to provide security or a down payment for the fulfilment of his obligations under the contract, and this payment has not been made or is insufficient;
- If due to a delay on the part of the customer, Wijnands Schilderwerken can no longer be expected to comply with the contract under the original agreed conditions;

2. If the reason for termination is attributable to the customer, Wijnands Schilderwerken is entitled to appropriate compensation from the customer.

3. If the agreement is prematurely terminated by Wijnands Schilderwerken, the parties will consult on any work still to be performed and, where required, transfer it to third parties. If the cancellation is attributable to the customer, the transfer costs will be borne by the customer. The customer is to pay these costs within the specified period, unless otherwise agreed.

Article 12 – Guarantees

6. Exterior painting work is guaranteed insofar as it has been explicitly agreed and depending on the type of paint that has been used, and never extends beyond the guarantee period provided by the relevant supplier. Without prejudice to the guarantee period, the exterior paintwork will offer sufficient protection against weather-related damage, unless any defects are caused by force majeure as stated in article 16 of this agreement.
7. The guarantee on interior paintwork is given for the stipulated period, depending on the type of paint and the materials used, or for the period agreed between the parties if there is any deviation from this. The interior paintwork will always be applied using the correct application system and/ or materials in accordance with the manufacturer or supplier's instructions.

2. If Wijnands Schilderwerken is to provide data security in accordance with the terms of the contract, this protection will comply with the specifications that have been submitted and provide a level of security level that is not unreasonable, given the state of the technology, the sensitivity of the data, and the associated costs.
3. Visual images of delivered work outcomes may be used for Wijnands Schilderwerken's advertising and promotional purposes, but only if the customer has given explicit permission.

Article 15 – Retention of title

1. All products and/ or items (such as, but not limited to, designs, images, drawings, models, estimates and costings), which Wijnands Schilderwerken wishes to retain, will remain its property. If it is agreed that the aforementioned goods will be delivered to the customer, they will remain the property of Wijnands Schilderwerken until the customer has paid all amounts due to Wijnands Schilderwerken in full.
2. Despite any obligation Wijnands Schilderwerken may have to transfer or hand them over, Wijnands Schilderwerken has the right to retain products and/ or goods purchased by the customer if the customer has not yet (fully) complied with the payment obligations. As soon as the customer has fulfilled these obligations, Wijnands Schilderwerken will deliver the items or purchased products to the customer as quickly as possible, but always within 20 working days.
3. Costs and other (consequential) damages incurred as a result of handling and storing the purchased products will be at the risk and expense of the customer who will compensate Wijnands Schilderwerken immediately upon request.

Article 16 – Force majeure

1. Wijnands Schilderwerken is not liable if it is unable to meet its obligations under the contract due to a force majeure situation.

3. If a force majeure situation lasts longer than 2 months, the contract can be terminated in writing by either party. If any services have already been performed in pursuance of the contract, a proportionate settlement will be made without any further contractual liability attaching to either party.

Article 17 – Limitation of liability

1. If the performance of work and/ or execution of orders by Wijnands Schilderwerken leads to Wijnands Schilderwerken's liability towards the customer or third parties, that liability is limited to the costs charged by Wijnands Schilderwerken in connection with that specific part of the order. Liability is in any event limited to the maximum amount of damages that would be paid out by the insurance company.
2. Wijnands Schilderwerken is not liable for consequential damage, indirect damage, loss of trade, loss of profits and/ or incurred losses, missed savings, damage due to business interruption, and damage as a result of the use of the products supplied by Wijnands Schilderwerken is also excluded. 5. If the (consequences) of a faulty work performance are due to defects or unsuitability of goods originating from the customer, the consequences must be borne by the customer, unless Wijnands Schilderwerken has breached its warning obligation, or its competence and due care with regard to these defects has otherwise proved inadequate.
6. Wijnands Schilderwerken is not liable for damage that is or may be the result of any act or omission as a result of (incomplete and/ or incorrect) information on its website or any linked websites.

Repairing damage as a result of the use of such materials counts as additional work in accordance with Article 5 of these conditions.
10. All customer claims for failure on the part of Wijnands Schilderwerken lapse if they have not been notified in writing along with the reasons to Wijnands Schilderwerken within one year after the customer was aware or could reasonably have been aware of the facts on which he bases his claims.
